

Call for Evidence: A Review of Coherent Provision and Sustainability in Further and Higher Education

As new Chair of Court at Heriot Watt University, I was invited to submit my views as part of your process.

I have been involved in the response produced by my institution and my personal views are completely aligned with this return.